

11/17/14

Christopher “Trot” Nixon

“Committed to Service Beyond Expectations”

MYRTLE BEACH, South Carolina --- November 17, 2014 --- Christopher “Trot” Nixon, the former star Right Fielder for the Boston Red Sox was the special guest at the annual Customer Appreciation Dinner at Thoroughbreds Chophouse & Seafood Grille (Myrtle Beach, SC) hosted by Green Resource. He mingled with the crowd of 100+ golf course superintendents, regaled highlights of his professional career, and gave the audience a motivational speech, “Pump! Pump! Pump!” Michael Fabrizio, of Daniel Island Club, the current Carolinas GCSA’s Distinguished Service Award winner was in attendance. Tanner McPeak and Matt Rickman represented the North Carolina State University Turf Club.

Jonathan Annas | Christopher “Trot” Nixon | Todd McPeak

Other guests included:

- Tim Kreger & Carolinas GCSA Board of Directors
- North Carolina State University
- James “Bonecrusher” Smith
- Leading Turf & Ornamental Basic Manufacturers

Christopher “Trot” Nixon

During his senior year at New Hanover High School (Wilmington, NC), Trot was named State Player of the Year in both football and baseball. He was the Baseball America High School Player of the year as he led his team to a State AAAA title. In 1993, Trot was drafted in the first round (7th overall pick) by the Boston Red Sox.

He played a vital part of the Boston Red Sox winning the 2004 World Series over the St. Louis Cardinals. Trot played a total of 12 years in the Major Baseball League.